Victorian Disability Awards 2022

We will give an award to someone who makes life a lot better for people with disability in Victoria.

You can tell us who should win the award.

The winner could be

- a person who speaks up for disability rights

- a business that works extra hard to give people with disability jobs

- a group that makes people with disability feel more welcome in your community.

Tell us who should win by 3 May 2022
